Mrs. Willing, a stately woman in sealskin and point lace, told the story tremblingly and nervously, and Tracy corroborated her. The Court reserved decision.

The next case was that of Charles Emer seeking to free himself from his wife Lizzie. They were married Dec. 10, 1880. Charles is a man of forty years, and to Lawyer A. E. Nordinger's questions, he said that the night of Sept. 28 hist, when he got home from work, he found that Lizzie had sold all the turniture and disappeared. Two weeks later he found her employed in a hospital. She was a drinking woman, and he had had her locked up twice for that. He wanted a separation. stephens's only answer was to point the $100; $4.00 per week; no deposit. Stephens's only abswer was to point the revolver and fire, shooting Henry in the groin. Henry was taken in one room, and less the plant in another, threatening to kill any one who attempted to arrest him. He finally surrended to a policeman. Jealousy is said to have been the cause of the affair.

Stephens was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court this morning and held without ball to await the result of Henry's injury.

PUT WIFE AND CHILDREN OUT.

But Mrs. Hester's Tears Saves Her Husband from Punishment. Frederick Hester, an engineer of 448 West Forty-first street, was arraigned in Jefferson Market Court this morning charged with getting drunk yesterday, and going he getting drunk y-sterday, and going home at to o'clock in the evening, putting his wife and jour children out into the street.

Policeman Lee, who was called to Mrs. Hester's assistance, had to break the door in to get at Hester, and then he had considerable difficulty in getting him to the West Thirty-seventh street station-house.

When Hester was arraigned in court his wire, with tears in her eyes, begged for his discharge. Justice Grady lectured Hester and let him go.

Joseph Eckert was driving along the Bowery on Saturday afternoon.

Roundsman Harster, who witnessed the theit, pursued McDonald and captured him. In his flight McDonald threw away the package. The stelen cigars were owned by the Port Richmond Cigar Company.
